Acts 10:34, 37-43 - Describes how the Apostles are renewed through their encounter with the Risen Christ and in their breaking of bread with him.

Corinthians 5: 6-8 - Paul quotes the well-known example of how yeast in a mass of dough changes its character and reminds the Christian community at Corinth that Christ is the "yeast" of sincerity and truth to change attitudes set in evil and wickedness.

John 20: 1-9 - Recounts the stunning experience of the women who came to the tomb where Christ had been buried, only to find it empty. They passed this news onto the Apostles who confirmed the women's discovery, and, at the same time, had their own faith confirmed.

Jesus' resurrection shows us that death does not have the last word; life does. May the blessings and peace of the risen Lord be given abundantly to you, your family and friends this Easter.
