"To believe or not to Believe"

With apologies to Shakespeare! Science v Faith! Can they coexist? Religion draws its strength by answering "Yes". Both are directed to finding the truth, and each should concern itself with its own province. Science relates to the physical world, whilst religion seeks to deal with the spiritual needs of creation. Today's feast of the Trinity focuses our attention upon this aspect of "mystery" in our belief - - Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three Persons, but One God.

Proverbs 8:22-31 - The author looks at the universe in all its majesty, harmony and beauty to draw conclusions about the Creator of this wonder.

Romans 5:1-5 - Whatever the trials and disappointments we encounter in life, we need to draw on an unswerving faith in God's love for creation of which we humans are the elect.

John 16: 12-15 - The visible expression of this Divine Love became present in the person of Christ called Emmanuel - God with us; through Him, the Father speaks to all who will listen. Our insight into this unity of the Father and the Son is deepened under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

CHURCH CLEANING: OLF Church: 20th June Team B – Polish Team

SECOND COLLECTION: This weekend there will be a second collection towards Day for Life.

The Church teaches that life is to be nurtured from conception to natural death. In England and Wales, DAY FOR LIFE is celebrated on the third Sunday of June each year.

The theme is Hope does not Disappoint: Finding meaning in Suffering. It is inspired by Romans 5:5-6. St Paul invites us to see that Christian hope is not just naïve optimism but, rather, an unshakeable trust in the power and presence of God who is with us always. This hope can endure the darkness of human suffering and even see beyond it. Suffering touches every person at some point in their lives. It is often associated with illness, grief, and loss. It is not only caused by physical pain but includes emotional suffering as well as ‘soul pain’, such as depression and despair. Christians are not immune to this mystery, and we often struggle to know how best to respond to it, and where we can find hope.

The upcoming Third Reading of the ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL

Catholic Bishops urge Catholics, and all people of goodwill, to contact their MP and ask them to vote against this bill. We also ask you to pray that our representatives choose to protect the most vulnerable citizens of this country when they vote later this month.

Social & Fund Raising: A very big thank you from the International Food Team for the amazing food donated to the event, our singers/musicians, stall helpers and to everyone who was able to come along to enjoy the event with us. The event raised £675, so once again thank you.

Celebration Breakfast: St Thomas More Church - 60 years

On Sunday 29th June, after the 8.30 mass, a Bring & Share Breakfast to celebrate 60 years since the opening of the church. Please come along to celebrate.
