Humility

We are, by nature, self-centred. As the saying goes - "If you think I am conceited now, you should have met me when I was perfect"! Today's readings speak to us of the value of the virtue of humility in developing a Christian response to life.

Zepaniah 2: 3; 3: 12-13 - These excerpts from the Old Testament written some 600 years before Christ emphasise the need for humility in those who would follow the Lord; in addition, the Prophet establishes the connection between humility and the acquisition of truth.

Corinthians 1: 26-31 - With his customary clarity of expression, Paul reminds the egotistical Corinthians that the message of Christ came first to those who had little or nothing; and this was done to show up those who believed they had everything.

Matthew 5: 1-12 - This proclamation by Christ is also recorded by St. Luke and is universally known as the "Beatitudes". Both authors make the point that virtue has its own reward and highlight the virtues of justice, compassion and humility.

The Presentation of The Lord, Feast

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, celebrated on 2nd February (40 days after Christmas), commemorates Mary and Joseph presenting baby Jesus at the Temple in Jerusalem, fulfilling Jewish law for the firstborn, where the devout Simeon and Anna recognized Him as the Messiah, the "Light to the Gentiles". Also known as Candlemas, it's marked by blessing candles symbolizing Christ as the world's light and concludes the Christmas season. Jesus as salvation and the call for Christians to share His light. On this day, we also reflect on the gift of consecrated life.
