Doubting Thomas

Increasingly, it would seem, we live in an age in which trust has become a scarce commodity; consequently, a little bit of the apostle Thomas has rubbed off on each of us - "Unless I can see and touch - I will not believe"! All of our readings today touch on this attribute of belief and mutual trust which characterised the early Christian communities.

Acts: 2: 42-47 The reading from the Acts of the Apostles details how this spirit of trust and belief expressed itself in the pooling of resources to be shared by all.

1 Peter 1: 3-9 St. Peter, in his letter, recommends belief in the Risen Christ as a source of strength in the face of the trials encountered in everyday living.

John 20: 19-31 Accepting Christ, or not accepting Him, is the choice each person has; and it is not the person who has the opportunity to see who necessarily believes most readily. In the matter of religious faith, one can see but not necessarily believe; and another may believe without actually seeing. This Gospel account, undoubtedly, was written to encourage those within the early Christian community who felt disadvantaged because they had not known Christ personally.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that all the graces of His mercy can only be received by our trust. The more we open the door of our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy has begun to spread. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Pray Our Father, Hail Mary, The Apostles' Creed

For each of the five decades

On each "Our Father" bead of the rosary, pray:

V. Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, soul and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ,

R. in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On each of the 10 "Hail Mary" beads, pray:

V. For the sake of his sorrowful Passion,

R. have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Conclusion

Repeat three times:

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
