"To believe or not to Believe"

With apologies to Shakespeare! Science v Faith! Can they coexist? Religion draws its strength by answering "Yes". Both are directed to finding the truth, and each should concern itself with its own province. Science relates to the physical world, whilst religion seeks to deal with the spiritual needs of creation. Today's feast of the Trinity focuses our attention upon this aspect of "mystery" in our belief - Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three Persons, but One God.

Exodus 34:4-6; 8-9: In this passage from Exodus, we see God as a God of mercy, ready to forgive His people. The Chosen people had fallen into idolatry and Moses intercedes for them before God.

Corinthians 13: 11-13: Despite his many differences with the Corinthians, a proud and successful people, Paul wishes them well by invoking the Three Persons of the Godhead - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

John 3: 16-18: - The visible expression of this Divine Love became present in the person of Christ called Emmanuel - God with us; through Him, the Father speaks to all who will listen. Our insight into this unity of the Father and the Son is deepened under the influence of the Holy Spirit.
